

Office of the Director (A)

Plans, organizes and directs the activities required to strategically manage the mission of the Glenn Research Center at Lewis Field. Ensures that the Center defines, develops and transfers critical technologies, systems, and educational/outreach products that address National priorities. Leads the Center in strategic partnership with U.S. Industries, Universities, and other Government Institutions and community organizations.

